

The Creed – Four Marks of the Church Reflection and Discussion Questions

1. Some people take comfort in the Creed in order to summarize their fundamental beliefs. Others are troubled that a fixed statement can hinder the creative work of the Holy Spirit. How would you describe your thoughts about the Creed in this regard?
2. Are there some aspects of the Creed that challenge you or that cause some discomfort to you as you discern God's plan for you? If so, what are they? What are some things you could do to explore them further?
3. Are there some aspects of the Church as described in the Creed that are more familiar to you than others? Which ones?
4. How does the notion that the holiness of the Church is not entirely dependent on the personal holiness of its members make you feel? How will it affect your personal witness to others as a disciple?
